Introduction

CALCULATING YOUR NUMEROLOGY CHART

I had always been fascinated by numerology. My father had a couple of books about it way back when, and I used to flip through them as a child. But it wasn't until about 8 years ago that I really got into studying numerology.

Looking at how the numbers in my own numerology chart made so much sense for me, I started experimenting more with it. On my family, my friends, on as many people as I could. Each time, it proved to be accurate, and each time, I learned more about its application into our lives.

Our lives are filled with numbers; from our phone numbers, our addresses, car license plates, social security numbers, credit cards, and so on. Numbers are pervasive in this world we live in, and we need numbers to keep our lives in order.

Numbers also have energies. Every number has a distinctive energy of its own that plays a part in influencing the world around us.

Many of us define ourselves by our names and birthdays, so it shouldn't come as a surprise that the numbers in our birthdays, and even our names - once you realize they can be calculated too - would give us a glimpse into our personalities and who we are as people.

My aim for this course is to help you calculate and understand the numerology chart, and learn more about how the numbers affect your life and your personality. It is by no means a comprehensive course, there is too much to learn that can be covered here, but I hope and I believe that this will be enough to get you started on this incredible journey of falling in love with the numbers and all that they can do for you.

Thank you for taking this journey with me. Good luck, and enjoy!

All my love,

~Hazellie

Anatomy of a Numerology Chart

A basic numerology chart is made out of six numbers, but occasionally, depending on the person's name(s), and the numbers in the chart, a full numerology chart could consist of up to seven or more numbers.

Out of the six numbers in a basic numerology chart, three are calculated based on the birthday, and another three are calculated from the name. The additional numbers in a chart depends on each individual's chart.

We will discuss each of the numbers in turn.

The Birthday Numbers

The following numbers are calculated from the birthday numbers. Your birthday never changes, so these numbers are fixed and will never change throughout your lifetime.

In cases where the numbers in a person's numerology chart causes a lot of conflicting numbers, and since the birthday numbers cannot be changed, it is generally recommended for the person to use a name variation, alias, or nickname that will be a better match to the energies of the birthday numbers.

- Life Path Number – the most important number in the numerology chart. It is the life purpose and the energies you need to manifest in order to feel fulfilled.
- Birth Day Number – the number that represents your natural talents and abilities.
- Attitude Number – expresses the first impression other people see of you.

The Name Numbers

The following numbers are calculated from the individual's name. These numbers can be changed as and when the name being used is changed. This includes nicknames, pet names, pseudonyms, married names, and other aliases.

- Soul Number – the second most important number in the numerology chart, it is the energies your soul needs to manifest in order to fulfill your personal and spiritual needs.
- Personality Number – this is the face you show the world and how you want others to see you.
- Power Name Number – the most important number in your name, represents the strength of your name and is the additional lessons you will experience in your life.

The Birth Name Number

The following number is calculated from the name given on the birth certificate, which is the first official name, and will never change throughout the lifetime, no matter how many names, aliases, or even legally changed names used throughout life.

- Destiny Number – holds the same position as the Power Name Number but represents the birth certificate name, and these energies will never change throughout the lifetime.

The Destiny Number only applies to your chart if the current name used is different from the given name on the birth certificate.

The Intensity Number(s)

Another number to take note of in the numerology chart is the Intensity Number. Some charts may not have Intensity Numbers, some may only have one, and there are some that may have up to three Intensity Numbers.

- Intensity Number(s) – these are numbers that repeat in your chart. If you have two or more of the same numbers, the energy of those numbers intensify and become more dominant in your chart.

The Life Path Number and Soul Number are the two most dominant numbers in any numerology chart. However, if there is an Intensity Number present, the energy of that number may become more dominant than the Life Path Number or Soul Number energies.

When analyzing a numerology chart, it is important to look at all the numbers in the chart as a whole. The meanings and the energies of the numbers never change, no matter where they are in a chart, and no matter how many times they occur. However, the position and frequency of the numbers do affect how the energies manifest and interact with each other and the other numbers in the chart.

Calculating the Birthday Numbers

Calculating the Birthday Numbers is relatively easy. Using the formula chart below, we add the relevant numbers in the birthday together, and then reduce them until they become a single digit.

Formulas for calculating the birthday numbers
Life Path Number	Birth day + birth month + birth year
Birth Day Number	Birth day number
Attitude Number	Birth day + birth month

For example, Elizabeth Jones' birthday is the 16th of May, 1995.

The following chart below illustrates how to calculate her birthday numbers for her numerology chart.

Elizabeth Jones' numerology calculations
Life Path Number	Birth day + birth month + birth year	$16 + 5 + 1995 = 2016$ $(2+0+1+6) = 9$
Birth Day Number	Birth day number	$16 (1+6) = 7$
Attitude Number	Birth day + birth month	$16 + 5 = 21 (2+1) = 3$

It's pretty straightforward in the case of the birthday numbers; all we do is add the numbers that are already there, and then reduce them until there's only a single digit left.

Calculating the Name Numbers

Calculating the Name Numbers is a little more complicated, but once you understand how the numbers are assigned to each letter of the alphabet, it becomes really easy.

Here's how it works; the letters are assigned according to sequence from the numbers 1 to 9, and then back to the number 1 again:

The Pythagorean Number System
1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
A	B	C	D	E	F	G	H	I
J	K	L	M	N	O	P	Q	R
S	T	U	V	W	X	Y	Z

Following the formula charts below, we are able to calculate an individual's name numbers:

Formulas for calculating the name numbers
Soul Number	Sum of vowels in name
Personality Number	Sum of consonants in name
Power Name Number	Vowels + consonants in name

We calculate the Destiny Number the same way we calculate the Power Name Number, only using the given name on the birth certificate.

Formulas for calculating the name numbers
Destiny Number	Vowels + consonants of birth certificate name

Y as both a vowel and a consonant

One thing to note when calculating names, is that the letter Y may be calculated as either a vowel or a consonant depending on its position and function in a name.

For examples;

Y is a vowel in the following names:

WYNSTON, YVONNE, TERRY, BETTY, EVELYN, EMILY, LILY, SKYLAR, BROOKLYN, KENNEDY, MADELYN, LYDIA, GWENYTH, JORDYN, DYLAN, KYLE

Y is a consonant in the following names:

HAYLEY, JEFFREY, AALIYAH, YANNI, AUDREY, PEYTON, RILEY, ARYA, TAYLOR, MAYA, MYA, ZOEY, WYATT, RYAN, SAWYER, BENTLEY, RAYMOND, YUSOF

A good rule of thumb is to see if there is a vowel of either side of the letter “y”. If there is no vowel on either side – WYNSTON, JORDYN, EMILY, then the “y” is a vowel. If there is a vowel on either side – HAYLEY, RAYMOND, YUSOF, then the “y” is a consonant.

Some names may have multiple “y’s”, for examples; SYDNEY, or HAYDYN.

In the case of SYDNEY, the first “y” – SYDNEY – is a vowel, and the second “y” – SYDNEY – is a consonant.

For HAYDYN, the opposite is true. The first “y” – HAYDYN – is a consonant, and the second “y” – HAYDYN – is a vowel.

Let's use Elizabeth Jones as our example again:

Elizabeth Jones' numerology calculations
Soul Number	Sum of vowels in name	ELIZABETH JONES 5 9 1 5 6 5	$5+9+1+5+6+5 = 31$ $(3+1) = 4$
Personality Number	Sum of consonants in name	ELIZABETH JONES 3 8 2 2 8 1 5 1	$3+8+2+2+8+1+5+1 = 30$ $(3+0) = 3$
Power Name Number	Vowels + consonants in name		$4 + 3 = 7$

From the calculations above, this is the full numerology chart for Elizabeth Jones:

Life Path Number	9
Birth Day Number	7
Attitude Number	3
Soul Number	4
Personality Number	3
Power Name Number	7
Destiny Number	-
Intensity Number(s)	3 & 7

As you can see, there are two number 7s, and two number 3s in Elizabeth's chart. This means that there are two Intensity Numbers in her chart, the numbers 3 and 7, making their energies manifest stronger than they normally would. We will look at how that works later in this course.

Number Meanings

Now that you know how to calculate a basic numerology chart and how each of the positions in the chart tend to manifest, we will look at the energies and meanings of the numbers, and how to apply the number meanings below to anyone's numerology chart.

Number 1 – The Leader

Keywords: leadership, independence, pioneer, self-motivated, perfectionists

The Number 1s are leaders. They are ambitious, self-motivated, and independent. They are usually the great pioneers; the innovators of new ideas, systems, projects, and inventions. They are unique individuals and have a need to take charge and be in the spotlight. They also tend to be lonely as they put themselves in positions of power and find it difficult to connect with others on an equal footing. They tend to be perfectionists and can be harsh on themselves when they make mistakes.

Number 2 – The Peacemaker

Keywords: connection, balance, loving, supportive, intuitive, sensitive

The Number 2s are peacemakers. They do not like conflict and just want everyone to get along. They want to love and be loved. They are intuitive and sensitive, and enjoy matchmaking and connecting people, bringing people together. Balance and cooperation is a constant theme for the number 2s. One of the challenges for the number 2s is putting themselves first and setting boundaries. They can sometimes get too caught up in other people's problems and let themselves be taken advantage of.

Number 3 – The Communicator

Keywords: expressive, entertainers, humorous, friendly, creative

The Number 3s enjoy communicating and expressing themselves. They are enthusiastic and optimistic people and are usually the entertainers and performers in social groups. They have a great sense of humor and enjoy making people laugh. They are also one of the most creative energies in numerology. Their energy are infectious and they enjoy making everyone around them happy. However, they can be prone to drama, and if they are unhappy, everyone around them is sure to know it too.

Number 4 – The Worker

Keywords: hardworking, methodical, planning, education, practical, security

The Number 4s are one of the most hardworking energies in numerology, along with the number 8s. They are loyal and dedicated, practical and down-to-earth. Safety and security are very important to them so they are usually the breadwinners and providers of the family. They make the best planners, managers, real estate agents, architects, and anything dealing with land investment and construction businesses. Facts and figures are their strengths, and they quickly become experts in areas they are interested in.

Number 5 – The Adventurer

Keywords: freedom, adventure, unconstrained, thrill-seekers, spontaneous

The Number 5s are free-spirited adventurers. They need variety and excitement in their lives. They are charismatic and make friends easily. They are also one of the best hosts in numerology because they get along well with most people and want to make everyone feel comfortable. However, they are unconstrained by traditional rules and don't often conform to the norms of society. Freedom is important to them, so they don't do well in 9-5 jobs, preferring careers where they can keep learning new things and have constant mental stimulation. They are highly adaptable and can deal well with change.

Number 6 – The Nurturer

Keywords: harmony, creative, homemakers, nurturers, comforting, supportive

The Number 6s are nurturers and caregivers. Harmony is important to them and they strive to achieve it in all aspects of their lives. They take pride in their home and family, and can be very creative homemakers and interior designers. They also tend to be very independent and want to have things done a certain way. In the home, in social settings, or at work – no matter if they are the child or the parent, the newcomer or long-time member of a social group, the boss or the employee – they are the ones who take care of, support, and comfort everyone around them.

Number 7 – The Truth-Seeker

Keywords: faith, analytical, skeptical, loners, introspective, contemplative, psychics, philosophers

The Number 7s are truth-seekers. They are introspective and contemplative loners. They need their occasional quiet time alone, away from everyone, which can make them seem aloof and standoff-ish. They are private people and take a lot of time to open up to others. They are constantly in search of truth and spiritual faith, and are among the most skeptical people. However, they are skeptics because they want the truth, and if they find it, they can become the most devout of believers.

Number 8 – The Businessperson

Keywords: financial security, business, executives, workaholics, material success, accomplishment

The Number 8s are the businesspeople and executives of the world. They get things done, and is one of the most hardworking energies in numerology. Material success and accomplishment are important to them, and they can become workaholics in pursuit of success. One of the biggest themes for the number 8 is achieving financial freedom and security. They often become millionaires, but as there is a dual nature to the number 8, they can often become bankrupt too. The good news is that money comes easily to them, and the energy of the number 8 is constantly moving, so they are able to bounce back just as easily.

Number 9 – The Humanitarian

Keywords: generous, leaders, compassionate, creative, selfless

The Number 9s are the humanitarians. They truly want to make a difference and save the world. It is important to them to leave the world a better place than when they found it. They are leaders by example, and their magnetism and sincerity attract many followers. They are selfless, generous, and compassionate, and can be extremely creative in finding solutions to problems. They can also become jaded with all the problems they see in the world, and often feel the weight of the world on their shoulders.

Understanding the Numerology Chart

Now we apply the number meanings to a numerology chart. Remember that the energies and meanings of the numbers always stay the same and never change no matter where you see them. The only thing that changes is how they manifest.

Let's look at the numerology chart for Elizabeth Jones again:

Life Path Number	9
Birth Day Number	7
Attitude Number	3
Soul Number	4
Personality Number	3
Power Name Number	7
Destiny Number	-
Intensity Number(s)	3 & 7

The Life Path Number and the Soul Number are usually the most dominant energies in an individual's chart, but in this case, we will have to take into account the energies of the Intensity Numbers as well.

Let's start with each of the numbers one at a time.

Life Path Number: 9

Elizabeth's life purpose is to make a difference and help other people. She needs to feel that her work has meaning and that she is doing her part to enrich the world.

Birth Day Number: 7

Elizabeth's gift is that she has an analytical and discerning nature. Her strong faith and beliefs inspires others and helps her to carry on when things get difficult.

Attitude Number: 3

Elizabeth appears as friendly and approachable. She likes to make people laugh and want them to feel comfortable around her.

Soul Number: 4

Elizabeth's personal and spiritual needs are to feel safe and secure, and be assured that her family's needs are taken care of. She also needs a sense of structure and organization in her daily life.

Personality Number: 3

Elizabeth wants others to see her as friendly and approachable. In this case, her Attitude Number is the same as the Personality Number, so what you see is what you get.

Power Name Number: 7

Elizabeth's faith and beliefs are her strengths, but they are also hard-earned lessons in her life. They are strong because they have been tried and tested throughout her life.

Destiny Number: N/A

N/A

Intensity Number(s): 3 & 7

Elizabeth's personal and spiritual needs are to feel safe and secure, and be assured that her family's needs are taken care of. She also needs a sense of structure and organization in her daily life.

In the following workbook, we will analyze your personal numerology chart and the meanings of each of the numbers and their energies as it pertains to you. You can also print as many copies of the workbook as needed and practice on your friends and family.

My Courses

This free mini course is only the beginning of a larger Numerology course. The Charting Your Personality with Numerology course is my newest course, and will be launching August 27th, 2018. If you enjoyed this mini course and would like to continue learning more about the numbers, visit mynasmoon.teachable.com for more information and to sign up for the course.

Numbers have energies, and many of us define ourselves by our names and birthdays. So it shouldn't come as a surprise that the numbers in our birthdays, and even our names - once you realize they can be calculated too - would give us a glimpse into our personalities and who we are as people.

In the Charting Your Personality with Numerology course, we will be learning how to calculate a personal numerology chart, the meanings and energies of the numbers, the energy interactions between the numbers, and more!

The more you understand how the energies of the numbers influence your life, the more proactive you can be in learning how to use and work with those energies, instead of fighting and working against them.

My aim for this course is to share this information in the hopes that it will help you learn to use the numbers for your benefit and for the benefit of those whom you share it with.

Visit mynasmoon.teachable.com for more information and to sign up for the course.

"I recently completed your course in the Tarot Summer School and I just had to send you an email to tell you how much I enjoyed it! You provided such great information in an easy to understand format! I'm finding that many of my major life events and life changes corresponded quite accurately with the Universal Year Numbers combined with my Personal Year Numbers. Very eye opening! Thank you!! The information is already helping me understand the Tarot cards more and is also helping me understand how numerology has such a profound effect on our lives. Again, just so interesting! Thank you again for taking the time to research and put this class together. I just loved it!" – Dawn Hessler
